

WE NEED YOU

We need your ideas, your enthusiasm, and your support. We think you will recognize the value of our projects on which we work throughout the year. At the same time we share a lot of fun and fellowship. We hope you will join us.

One Last Note

We hope this brochure answers any questions you might have about the functions or goals of the AAANC Auxiliary, and will encourage you to join our organization.

The nominal $5 is a small price to pay to help support the Auxiliary's fine programs and to participate in the fellowship that grows every year for those who join.

AAAC Auxiliary

Established 1973

The Auxiliary to the AAAC is to support the Auctioneers Association of North Carolina and promote the auction profession

History

The Auxiliary to the AANC was founded on January 28, 1973, upon the request of John Sutton, President of the Auctioneers Association of North Carolina. The purpose of the Auxiliary to the AANC is to support the Auctioneers Association of North Carolina and promote the auction profession. The organization began with 11 members and grew to include spouses, parents, children and grandchildren of active auctioneers. . The Auxiliary is a strong and healthy organizations that gives moral support and financial aide to the AANC. Any family member of an AANC member, in good standing, is eligible for membership. News of activities of the AANC Auxiliary is reported I “The North Carolina Auctioneer”, the official publication of the Auctioneers’ Association of North Carolina. In addition we have embraced the internet to send general news and information about members and activ-

GOALS

PROJECTS

The Officers (President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary/ Treasurer, Historian, Parliamentarian and Four Board members) are responsible for presiding at meetings and conducting the business with the approval of the general membership. The meetings are held at every AANC Convention on Saturday morning. Auxiliary business is conducted which includes old business, new business and discussion of current projects, scholarship status, and possible charitable contributions. The General Business Meeting is concluded by a luncheon and Fun Auction. Proceeds from the Fun Auction and other fund raising activities are used to support our projects. The following is a list of some of our recent projects:

Annual Scholarship for post secondary education.

Maintain the Auxiliary registration desk at the conventions

Establish AANC Auxiliary Hall of Fame

Donations to local charities.
